Section D - General Information

8. The following is provided for your information:

Social Protocol Stationery Update. Social Protocol Stationery is used solely for an official social function when a general officer acts as host on behalf of the Air Force at an Air Force sponsored function; or when a general officer participates in an official social function as an official representative of the Air Force. To establish an account which will allow on-line order of general officer stationery items, the general officer's exec or protocol officer should fax (DSN 584-4629) a completed AF Form 1846 to the Air Force Publishing Distribution Center requesting an account. The requestor must check the boxes next to the specific stationery items needed. The general officer's name and signature must be on the AF Form 1846. The requestor is only authorized to order, and permissions will only be granted for, stationery items for the rank of the general officer listed on the AF Form 1846. AF Forms 1846 submitted for the sole purpose of ordering stationery items do not require a verifying official signature. Please check the block marked "safeguard" for all social protocol stationery items. Once the account is approved, the requestor will be notified via e-mail and, after registering the account, can submit orders via on-line ordering on the e-Publishing Web site.
